\ Heavenly Father,

I come before you with a heavy heart, feeling the sting of rejection that cuts deep into my soul. You are the God who sees me, who knows me intimately, and who loves me unconditionally. I bring my struggles with rejection before you, seeking your comfort, healing, and guidance.

Lord, I confess that the pain of rejection has wounded me deeply. Whether it's the rejection of a friend, a loved one, or someone I admire, the hurt is real and the scars run deep. Help me to understand that my worth and value are not determined by the opinions or actions of others, but by your love and acceptance of me.

God, I pray for healing from the wounds of rejection. You are the God who heals the brokenhearted and binds up their wounds (Psalm 147:3). Pour out your healing balm upon my wounded heart, Lord, and mend the broken pieces. Help me to release the bitterness and resentment that may have taken root in my heart and to forgive those who have hurt me.

Father, I pray for strength and resilience in the face of rejection. Give me the courage to rise above the pain and to persevere in the face of adversity. Help me to see rejection as an opportunity for growth and self-discovery, rather than a reflection of my worth or value as a person.

Lord, I lift up to you any areas of my life where rejection has left its mark. Whether it's in relationships, career, or personal pursuits, help me to trust in your plan and purpose for my life. Remind me that you have a plan to prosper me and not to harm me, to give me hope and a future (Jeremiah 29:11).

Father, I pray for a deeper understanding of your love for me. Help me to find my identity and security in you alone, knowing that I am fearfully and wonderfully made in your image (Psalm 139:14). Fill me with your peace and assurance, Lord, knowing that I am accepted and cherished by you.

Thank you, Father, for your unfailing love and acceptance. May your grace continue to work in my life, bringing healing, restoration, and wholeness to every broken part of me.

In Jesus' name